

has bought the diamond merchant, but President Murphy says Harry is still a Cub.

Marty O'Toole pitched another minor league game yesterday and the Pirates lost. In every game O'Toole manages to hold the hits down and strike out a mess of batters, but his passes are disastrous to his team. Seven Bostonese were franked to first yesterday and two of them scored.

Red Dooin has cheered up. His team managed to get a break of luck yesterday. Pitcher Bob Harmon of St. Louis is correspondingly depressed. Harmon allowed the Quakers but two hits. They were bunched in the eighth inning, however, and the Cardinals lost.

Has Christy Mathewson gone back? Not so you could notice it. The veteran held the Reds to three hits yesterday and the Giants copped the rubber game of the series.

Beals Becker, because of his consistent hitting, has permanently displaced Josh Devore in the Giant outfield.

Already the results of Ty Cobb's action in New York are being felt. The St. Louis National management has put up a sign in the Cardinal park to the effect that all fans who abuse the players will be put out of the grounds.

Ty Cobb says Ban Johnson is "most egotistical, most overbearing and most stubborn person in baseball today." Evidently Ty is not an admirer of Ban.

Willie Ritchie, in Chicago today, resting from his recent fight with Champion Ad Wolgast, says that Ad was made to order for him. "I don't know whether he has gone back or not since his operation for appendicitis," said Ritchie, "but I am sure I can out-box, out-punch and out-guess him in the ring." Ritchie will leave for New York in a few days to pick up a few fights around the clubs there.

 WHAT WE'RE HERE FOR ***

We strive and struggle; we denounce, complain, cry out at evils; we advance new ideas. We clamor and fight for progress.

And that is victory, for after all, the process of evolution is an end in itself. We are here to develop our minds and souls along with our institutions, to carry the flag of civilization a little farther on.

Don't expect to make a new world tomorrow. Don't think there is any such thing as finality. But—keep a-goin'.

Baby's Picture.

Don't put new shoes on baby when taking him to have his picture. They will be stiff and uncomfortable and may give him an unpleasant expression. Anyway, a worn shoe that has shaped itself to the foot is much more artistic.
